SUPPLEMENT TO
REPORT NO. 25X1X

1. In mid-July 1,000 Chinese Communist troops with 21 motor junks arrived in Hsiap'u (119-59, 26-53). They are now receiving daily amphibious training in the Chinchu (金竹) Island area near Sansha (120-12, 26-56) Island. According to some of these troops, all of the troops are preparing to attack Taishan (120-38, 26-58), Faishuang (120-22, 26-42), and Hsiyanshan (120-05, 26-37) Islands off the Fukien coast.
2. On 2 July 300 Indochinese natives, recent graduates of the Hainan branch school of Nanfang University, left Haik'ou by water to return to Indochina.
3. On the morning of 2 August twelve Chinese Communist motor junks carrying 2,000 rifles, 10,000 rounds of rifle ammunition, and 30 cases of medical supplies, left Whampoa Harbor for the Ho Chi Minh controlled area of Indochina via Hsiying (110-24, 21-11).
4. On 29 July five Chinese Communist vessels arrived at Macao, three from Chungshan (113-36, 22-22) and two from Canton, with a total of 5,000 bags of rice sent by the Kwangtung Government authorities. This rice is to be bartered in Macao for military supplies for the Kwangtung Government.
5. In July a new shipyard was established in the Huoshihwan (火石灣) area near Bocca Tigris, with a total of 130 employees, and was repairing junks and building approximately five wooden junks per month. The machinery in this shipyard was obtained from both Whampoa and privately-owned Shich'i shipyards.

China

F-3 6. In late June the CH'ANG CHIN (長治), former Nationalist cruiser (sic) which defected to the Chinese Communists, was in the Tsingtao area.

F-3 7. Since early May Soviet submarines have been operating frequently off the Tsingtao coastal area. Eight submarines left this area 5 June, having been there since 27 May.
